

SOC 110 Gerontology (Sociology of the Aged)

An analysis of the social needs of old people in transitional and modern societies. comparative study of human maturity, aging, and death as they are perceived in different cultures. European and African attitudes toward the aged. The aged and democracy.