

SOC 303 Methods of Social Research (2 Units)

Social facts and their objective study; general concepts concerning scientific method. The nature of sociological research, formulation of social issues as research questions; and tools of research-survey, sampling, methods in data collection, etc Problems of field work.