

SOC. 308: Rural Sociology (2 Units).

The fundamental features of rural communities; their ecological systems; and patterns of transformation. The identification, evaluation, and utilization of natural and human resources. Social change in rural communities. Rural social institutions and their adaptation to change.