

GST302 Advanced Practical Skills Acquisition and Attachment Programme (2 Units)

- The application of the skills learned on the field attachment within the locality:
- Fish production, plantain and cash crop production, electronic design circuit, solar electrification, food processing fabrication, post-harvest processing skills.
- Household electrical wiring, special block moulding,
- Discussion on attachment and a detailed report of experience and its application on business decisions; pre and post attachment seminars