

EEE 592 Project II

An independent individual or group of student embark on a project under the supervision of an academic staff. A project proposal is presented and is subject to approval before implementation of the dissertation.