

EDS 316- Industrial Economics II

The case for industrialization; the industrial environment of Nigeria ; the growth and structural changes in manufacturing industries; market structure and conduct of selected manufacturing industries; private and public enterprises in industrial development; the financing and ownership of industrial projects; location of industries and distribution of industries; performance of the industrial sector; Government intervention in the industrial sector.