

EDS 310-

EDS 310- Research Methodology in Economics and Development Studies

Definition of research; the role of research in development; Development in research methodology, essential features of research work, procedures and stages involved in research proposals and report writing in Economics and Development studies. New developments in research methods in social sciences. Uses of statistical and Econometric methods in research.