

FST 320: Survey of Food Industry (2 Units)

Introduction to survey exercise and relevance to the development of the local food industries. Definition of the term food industry including description of its subsectors. Types and methods of survey used on survey exercise (structured printed paper materials like questionnaire, data sheet audio/visual records etc). Nature of survey data and methods of analysis